ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

The City of Marina also encourages residents to reach out to the following agencies for additional services or information:

United Way: 2-1-1 helps refer services for food, clothing housing, mental health services, job training, veteran's assistance and more, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, in 170 languages.

Great Plates Delivered Program for Seniors: Are you a high risk Monterey County Resident over 60, who is unable to shop for meals while you safely shelter at home? You may be eligible to receive 3 nutritious meals a day. Please call 2-1-1 for a phone screening and to begin the application process or apply at "Monterey County Senior Restaurant Program Intake": <https://211montereycounty.org> or for more information call (831) 755-4447.

Alliance on Aging: connects older adults with services, including Medicare questions, food and home delivered meals, transportation coordination, caregivers, counseling and more, Monday through Friday between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. by calling (831) 655-1334.

Monterey County Social Services: can connect older adults with a "Worker of the Day" who will help provide services by calling 1-800-510-2020.

City of Marina Recreation Website
